

t1r.com

Enterhost releases IaaS; SaaS to follow

Enterhost, a private datacenter company located in Fort Worth, Texas, is releasing its IaaS services that are tied to the Microsoft cloud platform. The company will offer customized cloud services at both a full private level and a hybrid level in which customers will have dedicated servers and a shared

You must be a current client, or active trialist of Tier1 Research's services to view active content.

Please login, or signup for a membership.